Plan now to join the Affordable Housing Tax Credit Coalition for the 2007 Annual Meeting in sunny Key West, Florida.

Network with your colleagues and attend conference sessions on January 23 and 24, 2007.

AHTCC will brief its members on the Coalition's legislative priorities for the new Congress.

Invited speakers will discuss the impact of GO Zone Credits and other issues impacting the Housing Credit community.

While you're there, explore Key West—a city with palm-lined street and “gingerbread” mansions. Home to the John Audubon and Ernest Hemingway homes, Key West offers a culture all its own. With temperatures in January averaging between 65° and 75° (with an average water temperature of 69°), Key West is famous for outdoor activities including diving, fishing, water sports, and golf.
